

"Life never gives us what we want at the moment that we consider appropriate."

I would like to say thank you to my family for being my moral support for 18 years. Friends are temporary; family is forever. Love yourself & go for it. Whether it ends good or bad, it was an experience.